6000 languages now spoken throughout the world around 3000 may become extinct during the next century. This guide gives linguists the tools to describe them, syntactically and grammatically, for future reference. Ekranisasi Awal Sep 14 2022 In the early 20th century, the Dutch East Indies was a colony in flux. Greater access to education meant an increasingly literate financial elite and, thus, a burgeoning literary industry. The lower class, meanwhile, found its entertainment in stage performances—oral literature often loosely adapted from famous novels. The film industry itself was attempting to find a successful formula, and in its early years faced heavy competition from the theatre. Educated women called for women's rights and protection of women's welfare as the economy began to transform from one based on the production of raw goods to one based in manufacturing. In this turbulent background, the social act of adapting films from novels emerged. This phenomenon began in 1927 with the adaptation of Eulis Atjih by G. Krugers and ended in 1942—before the Japanese occupation—with the adaptation of Siti Noerbaja by Lie Tek Swie. A total of eleven films were adapted from eight novels in the Indies. Only one author had multiple works adapted, and two novels were adapted more than once. The nine producers and directors involved in adapting novels came from a variety of ethnicities. The works adapted, meanwhile, were generally popular in wide society—though often best known through stage performances and adaptations. The adaptation process from this period has been little understood, yet important for understanding the history of screen adaptations, which are quickly becoming the most lucrative type of film in Indonesia. This exciting new contribution sheds light on the obscure history of film adaptation in Indonesia and lays the groundwork for further research. [UGM Press, UGM, Gadjah Mada University Press]

The Arabian Nights in Historical Context Mar 16 2020 Alf layla wa layla (known in English as A Thousand and One Nights or The Arabian Nights) changed the world on a scale unrivalled by any other literary text. Inspired by a fourteenth-century Syrian manuscript, the appearance of Antoine Galland's twelve-volume Mille et Une Nuits in English translation (1704-1717), closely followed by the Grub

Street English edition, drew the text into European circulation. Over the following three hundred years, a widely heterogeneous series of editions, compilations, translations, and variations circled the globe to reveal the absorption of The Arabian Nights into English, Continental, and global literatures, and its transformative return to modern Arabic literature, where it now enjoys a degree of prominence that it had never attained during the classical period. Beginning with a thorough introduction situating The Arabian Nights in its historical and cultural contexts-and offering a fresh examination of the text's multiple locations in the long history of modern Orientalism—this collection of essays by noted scholars from 'East', 'West', and in-between reassesses the influence of the Nights in Enlightenment and Romantic literature, as well as the text's vigorous after-life in the contemporary Arabic novel.

Why Mrs Blake Cried Aug 01 2021 This work offers a new insight into the work of William Blake. The discovery of Blake family documents led to a radical cast of characters including Cagliostro, Zinzendorf and Swedenborg, and to a world of waking visions, magical practices, sexual-spiritual experimentation, tantric sex and free love.

A-HA! Performance Nov 04 2021 Praise for A-HA! Performance "Since I wrote Choice Theory many years ago, I have come to the conclusion that there is only one major human problem: we have yet to figure out how to get along well with each other. In this book, Walker supports this conclusion with humor, creativity, and great insight. Managers who both follow his suggestions and teach them to those they manage will be rewarded with a happy and profitable workplace. And do it at less cost than the company is spending now." --William Glasser, MD, President and founder, William Glasser Institute, and author of Choice Theory and Reality Therapy "If ever there was a title that perfectly matched the content of a book, this is it. I have never experienced more a-ha's from a book in my life. One of the biggest a-ha's is that you don't build a motivated workforce--you already have one! If you manage people--and especially if you aspire to truly lead people--then this book is required reading. Rock-solid ideas from a master on motivation." --Joe Calloway, author of Work Like You're Showing Off! "An amazingly practical and prodigiously useful resource to help create and bolster a world-class sales force, but also a blueprint for better living in general. An absolute mandatory read for all my employees, not to mention friends and family members. I don't know anyone who couldn't benefit from applying the A-HA model. The title might be more apropos if it were 'Holy cow! Where's this been my whole career?'" --Robert H. Fleet, Branch Manager, National Builder Division, Countrywide Home Loans "A-HA! Performance should be mandatory reading for every manager. Each chapter offers simple and compelling methods for building and managing a self-motivated workforce. The realistic examples presented throughout the book reinforce the steps in the A-HA model and provide the foundation for easy application to professional and personal situations." --Ann Owens, Vice President, Total Rewards Management, QUALCOMM "Avoiding a fight-or-flight reaction from an employee who needs coaching on improved performance or behavior changes requires the manager understand the employee's vested interest. Walker teaches the skills required to effectively create three wins: for the company, the employee, and the manager. It's a must-read for all leaders who want to be more proficient in getting needed performance changes from their employees by improving their own nurturing, coaching, or mentoring skills. I'm reading it for the third time and still gleaning more tips and insights. Even though it's constructed as a managerial self-help book, it's really an insightful, powerful textbook, and as such needs to be studied." --Ron Cook, National Accounts Manager, 3M

Sitti Nurbaya Jun 11 2022 First published in 1922, the novel "Sitti Nurbaya: A Love Unrealized," by Marah Rusli, retains the poignancy that made it a modern Indonesian classic. In terms of its social impact in what was then the Dutch East Indies, "Sitti Nurbaya" may be compared to "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the ante-bellum United States. Even to this day, the issues of injustice and indignities suffered by women that this novel raised continue to be debated throughout the country. Rich in description, dense with ironic foreboding and the inexorable workings of fate, Sitti Nurbaya is Samsu and "Sitti Nurbaya"'s ill-fated love story. But in their wishes, the reader might also discern young people's tantalizing dream of what the East Indies society might become, or could become, if only local genius, embodied in a modernizing youth emancipated from stifling traditions, could fuse with European genius in mutual respect and admiration. This too was, of course, a dream never to be realized, and one perhaps which never could have been realized.

The Muslim World After 9/11 Jul 20 2020 Momentous events since September 11, 2001-Operation Enduring Freedom, the global war on terrorism, and the war in Iraq-have dramatically altered the political environment of the Muslim world. Many of the forces influencing this environment, however, are the products of trends that have been at work for many decades. This book examines the major dynamics that drive changes in the religio-political landscape of the Muslim world-a vast and diverse region that stretches from Western Africa through the Middle East to the Southern Philippines and includes Muslim communities and diasporas throughout the world-and draws the implications of these trends for global security and U.S. and Western interests. It presents a typology of ideological tendencies in the different regions of the Muslim world and identifies the factors that produce religious extremism and violence. It assesses key cleavages along sectarian, ethnic, regional, and national lines and examines how those cleavages generate challenges and opportunities for the United States. Finally, the authors identify possible strategies and political and military options for the United States to pursue in response to changing conditions in this critical and volatile part of the world.

Heroic Leadership Nov 23 2020 Leadership Principles for Lasting Success Leadership makes great companies, but few of us truly understand how to turn ourselves and others into great leaders. One company—the Jesuits—pioneered a unique formula for molding leaders and in the process built one of history's most successful companies. In this groundbreaking book, Chris Lowney reveals the leadership principles that have guided the Jesuits for more than 450 years: self-awareness, ingenuity, love, and heroism. Lowney shows how these same principles can make each of us a dynamic leader in the twenty-first century.

RFID for Libraries Jan 26 2021 Many modern technologies give the impression that they somehow work by magic, particularly when they operate automatically and their mechanisms are invisible. A technology called RFID (Radio Frequency Identification), which is relatively new, has exactly this characteristic. Librarians everywhere are closely watching RFID technology. Advances over using bar codes on library materials, RFID tags are being touted as a way to radically redesign how library materials are handled. But it is expensive. The tags are vulnerable to wear and tear and the technology is not fully developed. It's unclear what sort of return on investment (ROI) it provides. While it is common for libraries to now have information technology expertise within their organizations, RFID may appear unfamiliar. RFID for Libraries: A practical guide examines what RFID technology is and how it works. The book reviews the development of computer technology and its effects on library operations over the last couple of decades. Further examination features the applications of RFID technology in libraries. An assessment of current implementations in libraries and the lessons learnt provides suggestions to overcome the issues faced. Concluding chapters look into the future to see what developments might be possible with RFID in libraries. Benefiting from the rich experience the author has gained during recent implementation of RFID based system for his library and the important title aids the library and information community in understanding RFID technology from a library perspective. Written by a librarian who has recently implemented the RFID system for his library

Tahukah kau mengapa Tuhan menciptakan langit dan laut? Semata agar kita tahu, dalam perbedaan, ada batas yang membuat mereka tampak indah dipandang. Aku melihat lagi langit di atas Laut Lovina. Kenangan bersamamu menyerbu masuk ke ingatanmu. Laut dan mimpi-mimpi kita. Apa kabar hidupmu? Kita memang berbeda. Aku tahu. Sama tahunya seperti dirimu. Warna yang mengalir di nadimu tak sewarna dengan yang mengalir di nadiku. Namun, bukankah kita tak pernah bisa memilih dengan warna apa kita lahir? Kita lahir, lalu menemukan tawa bersama. Menyatukan cerita bersama. Menjumpati mimpi bersama. Mengapa kini kau lari menjauh? Lalu, apa kabarmu? Mengangakah masih lukamu yang dulu? Atau, kini sudah terpilihkan bagimu akhir yang bahagia? Maafkan aku. Maafkan karena tak bisa selalu menjadi laut yang tetap menyimpan rahasiamu. -GagasMedia-

Global Marine Biological Diversity Oct 23 2020 In 1989, the Center for Marine Conservation (CMC) joined a large group of international organizations in developing a Global Biodiversity Strategy. Now, CMC, the World Conservation Union, World Wildlife Fund, the World Bank, and the United Nations Environment Programmes have assembled a companion document, focusing on threats to life in the sea and ways to save, study, and use that life sustainably. This work, contributed by more than 100 experts, presents the most up-to-date information and views on the challenge of conserving the living sea. Illustrations, tables, figures, index.

Arts In Prison Dec 17 2022 BAGI warga binaan pemasyarakatan (WBP) yang dicibir dan dikucilkan masyarakat, mendapatkan lampu sorot dan tepukan tangan merupakan hal yang tak terbayangkan. Berkesenian memberikan kesempatan pada WBP untuk membuktikan bahwa mereka lebih dari sekadar kesalahan masa lalu. Bahwa ketika diberikan cukup ruang dan kepercayaan, mereka pun mampu menciptakan hal-hal yang indah dan dinikmati orang lain, apakah itu sastra, lagu, pertunjukan, fotografi, maupun lukisan. Arts in Prison mengisahkan proses para WBP berjuang mencipta di tengah segala keterbatasan dan incaran keputusan. Di antara hari-hari gelap bagi mereka, juga bagi sanak keluarga yang mesti ditinggalkan, ada hal-hal yang menyalakan harapan. Seorang WBP yang belajar menulis surat dan akhirnya bisa menyampaikan rasa sayang kepada ayahnya. Seorang WBP yang curahan kangen pada almarhum suaminya malah bisa dimusikalisasi dan ditampilkan oleh orkestra legendaris. Seorang WBP yang berpameran lukisan tunggal di venue seni bergengsi, justru beberapa tahun setelah ia dihukum mati. Bagi WBP yang cukup beruntung mendapatkan kesempatan kedua, pengalaman berkreasi di penjara diharapkan dapat menerbitkan harapan, agar mereka bertahan menjalani masa-masa sulit dan dapat berkarya kembali di masyarakat bila waktunya tiba.

pertama berjumpa dengan Erwin, Alita jatuh cinta pada sahabat kakaknya itu. Bagi Alita, tak jadi masalah Erwin hanya menganggapnya adik. Toh Alita memang tak berniat jadi kekasih Erwin. Mencintai bukan berarti juga bersedia jadi kekasih. Bagi Alita, orang tak pernah butuh syarat apa pun untuk jatuh cinta, tapi jelas banyak yang harus dipertimbangkan saat sepasang insan berniat menjalin hubungan serius. Dan Erwin---yang terang-terangan mengaku dirinya buaya mata keranjang---tak masuk hitungan Alita, juga tak masuk hitungan orangtua Alita, kakak Alita, bahkan juga sahabat Alita. Toh cinta Alita pada Erwin tetap tumbuh bersemi, meski tersembunyi dalam hati. Bagi Alita ini bukan pemberontakan melawan keluarga dan sahabatnya, sebab Alita merasa cintanya pada Erwin adalah jenis cinta sepihak yang tak menghendaki apa-apa dari yang dicintai. Cinta yang penuh kesadaran tak akan memperoleh pemenuhan. Cinta tanpa tujuan memiliki, apalagi menguasai. Cinta tanpa harapan, tanpa muara.... Tapi, sungguhkah jenis cinta semanis dan sesederhana itu bisa benar-benar ada? Sungguhkah Alita mampu tetap menggunakan akal sehatnya dan menuruti nasihat orang-orang terdekatnya, saat akhirnya Erwin juga jatuh cinta padanya?

Contested Nature Feb 24 2021 Contends that effective biological conservation and social justice must go hand in hand. How can the international conservation movement protect biological diversity, while at the same time safeguarding the rights and fulfilling the needs of people, particularly the poor? Contested Nature argues that to be successful in the long-term, social justice and biological conservation must go hand in hand. The protection of nature is a complex social enterprise, and much more a process of politics, and of human organization, than ecology. Although this political complexity is recognized by practitioners, it rarely enters into the problem analyses that inform conservation policy. Structured around conceptual chapters and supporting case studies that examine the politics of conservation in specific contexts, the book shows that pursuing social justice enhances biodiversity conservation rather than diminishing it, and that the fate of local peoples and that of conservation are completely intertwined. Steven R. Brechin is Professor of Sociology at Syracuse University. He is the coauthor (with Patrick C. West) of Resident Peoples and National Parks: Social Dilemmas and Strategies in International Conservation. Peter R. Wilshusen is Associate Professor of Environmental Studies at Bucknell University. Crystal L. Fortwangler is Visiting Assistant Professor of Environmental Studies at Oberlin College.

A Lady of Persuasion Nov 11 2019 Tessa Dare spins a witty, wanton tale of passion and conquest, as a reformer and a rake find unexpected love. Only one thing could convince Sir Tobias Aldridge, an incorrigible libertine, to profess undying fidelity to a woman he's just met. Revenge. What better way to get back at an enemy than by stealing the scoundrel's sister? Not that Toby finds it a chore, seducing a beguiling, sultry beauty freshly arrived from the West Indies. When the prize is Isabel Grayson, vengeance is doubly rewarding. Isabel is determined to marry a wealthy, powerful lord and become a lady of influence, using her rank and fortune to fight social injustice. Sir Toby, with his paltry title and infamous reputation, is unsuitable husband material—but he makes her blood race, her heart pound, and her long-buried passions come to the surface. If she can reform the charming devil, she'll get exactly what she craves: society's respect. But it's a dangerous gamble. For if Toby wins this battle of persuasion, Isabel could lose her heart.

A Russian Affair Oct 11 2019 When Gurov sees the lady with the little dog on a windswept promenade, he knows he must have her. But she is different from his other flings – he cannot forget her ... Chekhov's stories are of lost love, love at the wrong time and love that can never be. United by the theme of love, the writings in the Great Loves series span over two thousand years and vastly different worlds. Readers will be introduced to love's endlessly fascinating possibilities and extremities: romantic love, platonic love, erotic love, gay love, virginal love, adulterous love, parental love, filial love, nostalgic love, unrequited love, illicit love, not to mention lost love, twisted and obsessional love...

Creativity for 21st Century Skills Mar 08 2022 VERY practical, on target for schools today—good balance of theory with anecdotal connections." "At first I was worried about the time involved. I discovered when given 5 minutes . . . the time is a continuation to their work in progress. Realizing that creativity does not have to consume large chunks of time is more meaningful than tokens." "I like the tone of the writing. It feels like there is a conversation going on." "I like the stories of famous people and how their creativity influenced and changed their lives."

CREATIVITY FOR 21ST CENTURY SKILLS describes what many creative people really do when they create. It focuses on the practical applications of a theoretical approach to creativity training the author has developed. Many suggestions for enhancing creativity focus on ideas that are over 60 years old. This new approach may be helpful for those seeking to develop 21st Century Skills of creativity. Five core attitudes (Naiveté, Risk-taking, Self-Discipline, Tolerance for Ambiguity, and Group Trust), Seven I's (Inspiration, Intuition, Improvisation, Imagination, Imagery, Incubation, and Insight), and several General Practices—the use of ritual, meditation, solitude, exercise, silence, and a creative attitude to the process of life, with corresponding activities, are described, discussed, and illustrated. A discussion of how to be creative within an educational institution is also included. JANE PIIRTO is Trustees' Distinguished Professor at Ashland University. Bunga Angin Portugis di Nusantara Oct 15 2022 Kehadiran Portugis di perairan dan kepulauan Indonesia kurang-lebih 500 tahun yang lalu telah meninggalkan jejak-jejak sejarah sampai hari ini masih dipertahankan oleh beberapa komunitas lokal di Nusantara, khususnya di Flores, Solor, dan Maluku. Salah satu warisan Portugis yang menarik adalah nama Pulau Flores yang sesungguhnya merupakan kependekan dari Cabo de Flores, sebuah nama yang dipergunakan pelaut-pelaut Portugis di masa lalu ketika mereka mencapai Tanjung Bunga. Istilah 'bunga angin' yang dipilih sebagai judul buku ini juga mempunyai arti yang sama dengan istilah flor (flor de agua, mar em flor) dalam bahasa nautikal Portugis di abad ke-16. Bunga angin berarti aroma ombak atau angin sepoi-sepoi yang mendahului badai. Oleh karena itu buku Bungan Angin Portugis di Nusantara ini merupakan kumpulan narasi tentang jejak-jejak Portugis di Nusantara yang telah memberikan warna unik kepada kehidupan masyarakat Indonesia yang disentuhnya. Hanya sedikit peneliti Indonesia yang memberikan perhatian kepada warisan sejarah ini, walaupun banyak hal dalam kehidupan kita hari ini tidak bisa dilepaskan dari fakta sejarah tersebut. Penerbitan kembali karya Paramita R. Abdurachman tentang sumber-sumber sejarah Portugis di Indonesia yang selama ini tersebar di berbagai jurnal, merupakan suatu upaya mengajak generasi muda Indonesia untuk memahami masa lalu masyarakat kita bagi kebaikan masa depan bangsa, khususnya dalam menata hubungan antar bangsa.

Contemporary Art: A Very Short Introduction May 30 2021 "Bloodied toy soldiers, gilded shopping carts, and Lego concentration camps. Contemporary art is supposed to be a realm of freedom where artists shock, break taboos, and switch between confronting viewers with works of great profundity and jaw-dropping triviality. But away from shock tactics in the gallery, there are many unanswered questions. What is contemporary about contemporary art? What effect do politics and big business have on art? And who really runs the art world?" "Previously published as Art Incorporated, this controversial and witty Very Short Introduction is an exploration of the global art scene that will change the way you see contemporary art."--BOOK JACKET.

World Development Report 2020 Sep 21 2020 Global value chains (GVCs) powered the surge of international trade after 1990 and now account for almost half of all trade. This shift enabled an unprecedented economic convergence: poor countries grew rapidly and began to catch up with richer countries. Since the 2008 global financial crisis, however, the growth of trade has been sluggish and the expansion of GVCs has stalled. Meanwhile, serious threats have emerged to the model of trade-led growth. New technologies could draw production closer to the consumer and reduce the demand for labor. And trade conflicts among large countries could lead to a retrenchment or a segmentation of GVCs. World Development Report 2020: Trading for Development in the Age of Global Value Chains examines whether there is still a path to development through GVCs and trade. It concludes that technological change is, at this stage, more a boon than a curse. GVCs can continue to boost growth, create better jobs, and reduce poverty provided that developing countries implement deeper reforms to promote GVC participation; industrial countries pursue open, predictable policies; and all countries revive multilateral cooperation.

The Living Ocean Dec 05 2021 The first edition of The Living Ocean, published in 1991 by Island Press in association with Friends of the Earth, was widely praised by scientists, policymakers, instructors, and general readers as a useful and accessible introduction to the science and policy of biological diversity in marine environments. Since that time, much new research has been conducted and numerous national and international policy initiatives have been undertaken. With 1998 designated by the United Nations as the International Year of the Ocean, this new, revised and expanded, edition is a welcome and much-needed addition to the literature. This edition brings the volume up-to-date, and re-establishes it as an essential primer for anyone wishing to gain an understanding of marine biodiversity and how it can be protected. It provides an overview of basic concepts and principles and a review of relevant policy issues and existing instruments. The author defines biological diversity and discusses the importance of threats to marine biodiversity. The book reviews the current status of scientific knowledge, describes the major coastal and oceanic ecosystem types, and addresses the major threats in each. It presents a general discussion of the ways in which government and the public can protect marine biological diversity, provides specific examples of national and international policies, legal instruments, programs, and institutions, addresses how social, economic, political, and ethical considerations affect decisions to conserve marine biological diversity, considers the involvement of citizens in developing ocean policy. The book also includes a useful glossary that provides information about basic biological concepts, and a comprehensive bibliography. Throughout, the author emphasizes the relationship of human societies and governments to the living ocean, and the need to implement programs that will protect ecosystems and species.

Ecology of Indonesian Papua Part Two Jun 18 2020 The Ecology of Papua provides a comprehensive review of current scientific knowledge on all aspects of the natural history of western (Indonesian) New Guinea. Designed for students of conservation, environmental workers, and academic researchers, it is a richly detailed text, dense with biogeographical data, historical reference, and fresh insight on this complicated and marvelous region. We hope it will serve to raise awareness of Papua on a global as well as local scale, and to catalyze effective conservation of its most precious natural assets. New Guinea is the largest and highest tropical island, and one of the last great wilderness areas remaining on Earth. Papua, the western half of New Guinea, is noteworthy for its equatorial glaciers, its vast forested floodplains, its imposing central mountain range, its Raja Ampat Archipelago, and its several hundred traditional forest-dwelling societies. One of the wildest places left in the world, Papua possesses extraordinary biological and cultural diversity. Today, Papua's environment is under threat from growing outside pressures to exploit its expansive forests and to develop large plantations of oil palm and biofuels. It is important that Papua's leadership balance economic development with good resource management, to ensure the long-term well-being of its culturally diverse populace.

Philosophical Issues in Tourism Dec 25 2020 Despite the geometric expansion of tourism knowledge, some areas have remained stubbornly underdeveloped and a full or comprehensive consideration of the philosophical issues of tourism represents one such significant knowledge gap. A key aim of this book therefore is to provide an initial mapping of, and fresh insights into this territory. In doing so it discusses key philosophical questions in the field such as What is tourism? Who is a tourist? What is wisdom? What is it to know something? What is the nature of reality? Why are some destinations considered beautiful? Why is tourism desirable? What is good and bad tourism? What are desirable ends? These and similar topics are addressed in this book under the headings of truth, beauty and virtue.
